New TV Star: Caroline Benson talks about her first TV role

I never expected to spend some time of my first year at university filming The Finnegans. I'd only ever acted at school, but i'd loved the book since I was eleven. My grandmother used to say I was just Polly Finnegan and I always imagined myself playing her.

I'd taken a year off to go travelling before university. While I was in Chile, my mother emailed me to say there were plans to turn the book into a TV drama. I knew I had to go for the part. She was surprised at first, but sent my photograph to the director and persuaded him to meet me. I flew back and got the part.

The outdoor filming started a week into term, so I got permission from the university to be away for three weeks. Once I was back at university, I got up at 6.00 A.M every day to write the essays I'd missed. I didn't tell my university friends about the film, but they found out and thought it was great.

It was an amazing experience-I'm so lucky. After university, I definitely want to make acting my career. I'm not from an acting family, though my grandfather was an opera singer. I've tried for other TV parts but haven't received any yet.

I don't know how I managed it all, because I had a full social life too. When the filming finished, I hardly knew what to do. I've since appeared in two college plays. Unfortunately, I haven't been home much and now my first year at university is over, I'm off to Greece for the summer with friends.
